Since its founding in 1886, induction into Sigma Xi has been a milestone in hundreds of thousands of distinguished science and engineering careers.

Becoming a member

Induction into Sigma Xi is recognized by colleagues, administrators, and employers as a milestone in one's career, signifying a level of research accomplishment or potential.

Full membership—

An individual who has shown noteworthy achievement as an original investigator in a field of pure or applied science is eligible for election to full membership.

Associate membership—

An individual who has shown potential for a research career through a written research report or presentation is eligible for election to associate membership.

More engagement opportunities

Affiliate Circle

Open to all those who support our mission—including teachers, technicians, clinicians, students, and science enthusiasts. Members are encouraged to invite students who don't yet qualify for associate membership to the Affiliate Circle as the first step in their professional career.

Sigma Xi Explorers

Connecting students in grades K-12 with the research community. Students are eligible if they have participated at a science fair and submit an enrollment form with a letter of recommendation from a science or math teacher. Explorers may form or participate in Sigma Xi Clubs at their schools in partnership with local Sigma Xi members and chapters.
