Grants-in-Aid of Research Named Funds

Sigma Xi's Grants-in-Aid of Research program provides assistance to young scientists for research in the physical, natural and social sciences and engineering. Any individual or organization may establish a named fund by agreeing to contribute at least $25,000 to the endowment.

The Eugene and Millicent Goldschmidt Fund

Millicent C. Goldschmidt established this named fund for grants supporting women in microbiology.

Many thanks also to the District of Columbia chapter and its $5,000 contribution to the Grants-in-Aid of Research (GIAR) Centennial Campaign.

Matching Gift Organizations

Sigma Xi also appreciates the support from the following organizations that have supported the Society's FY2013 programs and operations through matching gift donations.

Apache Corporation
Bristol-Myers Squibb Foundation
Chevron Humankind Gift Program
Gartner Matching Gifts Program
GE Foundation
GlaxoSmithKline
