

Resume Moran for Director at Large:

David Moran has served as Director for the Members-at-Large of Sigma Xi for the past 3 years. He currently serves on the Sigma Xi Executive Committee, and he just completed a term as Treasurer of the Society. In the past, he served as National Treasurer, Director of the Mid-Atlantic Region, Chapter President, and founder of two chapters of our Society in Washington. He embodies every principle that is critical to the future growth and success of Sigma Xi.

David led the recent program that has been a catalyst to financial solvency of the Society. He continues to support and defend the renovation of our Society as a major force in the future of Scientific Research in this nation. He is a principal leader in our financial and sociological campaign for the future of the Society.

Dr. Moran is a Hydrodynamicist from MIT and a leading internationally renowned and published researcher in Hydrodynamics, Oceanography and Ocean Engineering. He is currently Adjunct Professor, at George Washington University and also at West Virginia University.