

BLACKSBURG MARCH FOR SCIENCE

SCIENCE MARCHES ON...

In 2017, more than one million people around the world gathered together in the largest event for science advocacy in history. In 2018, we unite again to hold our elected and appointed officials responsible for enacting equitable evidence-based policies that serve all communities and science for the common good.

TIME: 5 PM, RALLY

LOCATION: GOODWIN HALL LAWN/PRICES FORK ROAD; (MARCH TO JOHNSON STUDENT CENTER PATIO FOR TALKS), VIRGINIA TECH, BLACKSBURG VA

SPEAKERS: DR. JOHN C. NEMETH, FORMER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND CEO OF SIGMA XI, THE SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH HONOR SOCIETY; DR. JOE MEROLA, CURRENT PRESIDENT OF THE VIRGINIA TECH CHAPTER OF SIGMA XI, THE SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH HONOR SOCIETY; DR. REBECCA HESTER, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY IN SOCIETY; DAMIEN WILLIAMS, GRADUATE STUDENT.

BE A CATALYST FOR CHANGE

The March for Science is a diverse, global movement that advocates for equitable, evidence-based policy that serves all communities. Join us and become an advocate for change. Hold your representatives accountable. Use your voice to make science heard.

SPONSORED BY THE COALITION FOR JUSTICE AND THE VT CHAPTER OF SIGMA XI, THE SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH HONOR SOCIETY