

Sigma Xi Annual Meeting & Student Research Conference

Big Data and the Future of Research

Tools for Professional Development

Saturday, October 27:

Sue Weiler

Chris Olex

How Can We Build on Our Strengths?

Chris Olex, The Point; Sue Weiler, Whitman College

- Explore the five traits of most successful teams
- Discuss opportunities for interdisciplinary collaborative research, training, and fellowship

Surviving and Thriving in a Research Career:

Chris Olex, The Point; Sue Weiler, Whitman College

- Explore characteristics to know about yourself that can help you navigate challenges
- Look at techniques to develop more resilience and grit
- Become familiar with different avenues of support

Emma Perry

Grant Writing Workshop

Emma Perry, Professor of Marine Biology at Unity College and former Chair of Sigma Xi's Committee on Grants-in-Aid of Research

David Flannigan

Uncovering the Fundamental Behaviors of Materials with Ultrafast Electron Microscopy

David Flannigan, Associate Professor and Director of Undergraduate Studies for Materials Science and Engineering, University of Minnesota

#SigmaXimg

October 25-28, 2018

Hyatt Regency San Francisco Airport, California

Register at: sigmaxi.org/amsrc