CALL FOR STUDENT PRESENTATIONS

On October 23–24, 2015, high school, undergraduate, and graduate students will join research scientists from North America and abroad for a celebration of research accomplishments hosted by Sigma Xi, The Scientific Research Society. Sigma Xi is the global honor society for science and engineering research.

YOU ARE INVITED to submit an abstract of your research for consideration to be presented as a student poster.

CONFERENCE EVENTS INCLUDE:

• Student research presentations to be evaluated by leading career scientists
• Networking with professional researchers, graduate school recruiters, and potential employers
• Career development workshops

FEATURED AWARD WINNING SPEAKERS:

▲ May Berenbaum—National Medal of Science winner for pioneering studies on insect–plant interactions and for inspiring others about science.
▲ David Williams—Developer of highly accurate models to measure and correct the eye’s aberrations.
▲ Miles O’Brien—Emmy Award-winning journalist who focuses on science, technology, and aerospace.
▲ Melissa Kenney—Environmental decision analyst and lead scientists on a team that developed recommendations for indicators that will track climate change and its impacts.

DEADLINE: Abstracts must be submitted by September 23, 2015, in order to appear in the conference program.

CONFERENCE LOCATION: Sheraton Kansas City Hotel at Crown Center in Kansas City, Missouri.

INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION: Email meeting@sigmaxi.org or visit https://www.sigmaxi.org/meetings-events/student-research-conference

#SIGMAXIMTG